TORO BABIES HOME SEPTEMBER REPORT.

Greetings from Toro Babies Home.

Presently the home is caring for twenty seven children 16 girls and 11 boys.

Admissions.

We have had two new admissions of abandoned Children-One was in a very poor state with severe malnutrition she is estimated to be 2 years and the other baby boy was abandoned immediately after birth. Police is investigating to get their parents while the Children are at the Babies Home.

The photo below shows a Community Development officer, Probations officer Kabarole district with the abandoned Child at Toro Babies Home.

Staff Welfare.

All the staff members are quite alright

The home recruited one new staff member Ms. Felista Komuhendo thus another 4th house was opened at least now the mothers have been relieved from too much load each mother cares averagely for 7 Children since all of them are young and need care

General Home Status

The general condition is alright except lack of funds for daily running. Presently we do not have any donor apart from Children need parents who contributes shs.3, 500,000 monthly towards staff salary

Appreciation.

We appreciate all the support you have rendered to the home;

Dry food 100kgs posho, 109kgs beans, 100kgs Rice, 100kgs G.nuts, 100kgs, Bedsheets, Nappies, plastic pants, flasks, clothes, shoes, powder milk and these can at least push the home for 2 months and the Sewing machine.

We have started sewing bags using local materials hope to send them for sale and we have sewn Rachael's bed sheets (the disabled girl in house number 6) and in future we plan to make shirts.

Also extend our greeting and appreciation to the Partnerschaft Gesude Welt members who have stood with you to save these innocent souls of the Children who would have died due to poor conditions. May the Almighty God bless your hands that are giving and reward you 100 folds.
